

National Magazine

OF
LITERATURE, ART and FASHION.

GRAHAM'S LADY'S AND GENTLEMAN'S Magazine.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1843.

EDITORS:

GEOGE R. GRAHAM & R. W.
GRISWOLD.

REGULAR CONTRIBUTORS:

J. FENNI MORE COOPER, RICHARD H. DANA, WM. CULLEN BRAINT, H. W. LONGFELLOW, T. C. GRATAN, CHS. F. HOFFMAN.

GRAHAM'S is the oldest and most popular of the American Literary Magazines. The number for January, 1843, will be the first of the 35th volume. Its long and universal successful career from the commencement with a few hundred subscriber until the present time, when it has a circulation of fifty thousand copies a month is perhaps as good an evidence of its great and increasing merit as the publisher has it in his power to offer. To his old subscriber he trust no assurances are necessary of his determination to maintain its present ascendancy over all the rival periodicals of the country. The engagement during the past year, of such men as BRIANT, COOPER, DANA, LONGFELLOW, HOFFMAN, MANCUR etc., of high repute in the literary world as regular contributors, in addition to a previous list embracing many of the first names in the nation is a sufficient guarantee that the work will be the principle medium of communication between the best authors and the public. Among the attraction of the thirty fifth volume, will be several tales by J. F. Cooper, Gratian, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Herbert, Miss. Leslie, Mary Clavers, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Ellet, & Mrs. Stephenas; Poems by Mr. Bryant, Mr. Dana, Mr. Longfellow, Mr. Street, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. Osgood and Mrs. Sigourney; Essays by Mr. Fay, Mr. Tuckerman, Mr. Jones, Mr. Poe, etc., etc.

[There follow the names of about forty distinguished writers, who it is said, will be contributors to this volume; but which we have not room to insert.]

SPLendid EMBELLISHMENT.

In the department of Engravings, it is very well known that Graham's Magazine has far surpassed any periodical work ever published in this or any other country. The highest ambition of rival publishers seems thus far to have been to maintain a respectable imitation of the numerous costly and beautiful works of art with which the successive numbers of this journal have been graced. In the course of the succeeding volumes many important new features will be introduced.

We propose to issue WITHIN FOR TY-EIGHT HOURS AFTER THE ARRIVAL OF EACH STEAMSHIP OF THE CUNARD LINE.

A Republication of

BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY, in the large octavo form, copied generally by the American publishers of the cheap editions of the English novels, printed on good paper and type, with a neat cover, so that publishers may bind it in the same volume with the publications of the "Brother Jonathan" and other clippings. The terms will be as follows.

Subscription price for the year, $1.50; two copies for $3.00; 4 copies $5.00—single copies 24 cents.

Each number of the Miscellany contains over 100 pages in the English edition, & the London price is about seven dollars, a year. The vast amount of reading matter and the astonishing cheapness of our reprint, will be apparent on a moment's consideration. The subscriber boldly challenges the world to produce a parallel to his present enterprise, in which notwithstanding the outlay involved, and the exertions requisite to carry it into effect, he embarks unhesitatingly in the full confidence of the support and approbation of the public. The first or January number will be issued from this office in a few hours after the arrival of the steamship.

The postage on this reprint will be on 24 cents, under 100 miles, and 4 cents over 100 miles.

GEO. ROBERTS.

Proprietor of the Boston Notion.

This cheap reprint of Bentley's Miscellany, we shall probably follow with regular reprints of Blackwood & other prominent English Magazines, in a uniform style with our reprint of Bentley.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

AMERICAN EDITION

OF THE

DULIN UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE.

The increased attention paid to the cultivation of British Periodical Literature, may be regarded as one among the prominent characteristics, of the present age. An entirely new class of writers, including some of the finest intellects the country has produced, have, in some instances, done honor to its pages, and thus a corresponding elevation has been given to the stand of the popular taste.

Among the distinguish periodicals of the day, none may be said to take higher range in the fields of elegant literature than the "Dublin University Magazine."

Characterised, as its pages have ever been by a delightful raciness, of rich Irish humor, and deep and powerful pathos, and

TERMS.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE will be published on the first of each month in every part of the Union. The most distant subscribers will therefore receive it on that day as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. The proprietor being more desirous of presenting the best and most BEAUTIFUL, than the cheapest work in the country and anxious, to bring it in reach of all offers the following as the lowest terms at which it may be afforded: Three Dollars in advance for a single copy, or two copies yearly, for Five Dollars, five copies, for Ten Dollars; eight or fifteen Dollars (clubs furnished as usual,) invariably in advance. Postage on all letters, to be paid.

GEO. R. GRAHAM,
No. 98, Chestnut-st., Philadelphia,
December, 1842.

CLIMAX OF NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE.

REPUBLICATION OF BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY!!

At only 24 cents per copy.

THE subscriber, determined to keep pace with the progress of the times, and to lead the van of newspaper enterprise, has made arrangements for COMMENCING IMMEDIATELY the REPUBLICATION of the MOST POPULAR BRITISH MAGAZINE of the day, in a style fully equal to that of the majority of the reprints, and at a price below which no periodical can be offered. The work referred to is a magazine which, from the moment of its first issue has received the support and applause of thousands of readers on both sides of the Atlantic—work sustained by the contributions of some of the most brilliant writers of the age, popular in its character and varied in its contents, which is ranked at different periods, among its contributors, Leigh Hunt, Dickens, Viscount, Hood, S. C. Hall, Fogolby, Lady Morgan, Mrs. Hall, Laman Blanchard—in short, almost half the distinguished nations of England. It would be needless to extol the merits of BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY, for they are recognised here almost as universally as in Great Britain. Articles from its pages have been copied extensively in our papers, and the American reprint of Bentley has enjoyed a very extensive circulation. But there are thousands in this nation of Magazine and newspaper readers who cannot afford to pay the price asked for the only American reprint in the market, and moreover a delay occurs in the republication alluded to, which is far from satisfactory to the public and which our facilities enable us to obviate.

BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY,

We propose to issue WITHIN FOR TY-EIGHT HOURS AFTER THE ARRIVAL OF EACH STEAMSHIP OF THE CUNARD LINE.

A Republication of

BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY, in the large octavo form, copied generally by the American publishers of the cheap editions of the English novels, printed on good paper and type, with a neat cover, so that publishers may bind it in the same volume with the publications of the "Brother Jonathan" and other clippings. The terms will be as follows.

Subscription price for the year, $1.50; two copies for $3.00; 4 copies $5.00—single copies 24 cents.

Each number of the Miscellany contains over 100 pages in the English edition, & the London price is about seven dollars, a year. The vast amount of reading matter and the astonishing cheapness of our reprint, will be apparent on a moment's consideration. The subscriber boldly challenges the world to produce a parallel to his present enterprise, in which notwithstanding the outlay involved, and the exertions requisite to carry it into effect, he embarks unhesitatingly in the full confidence of the support and approbation of the public. The first or January number will be issued from this office in a few hours after the arrival of the steamship.

The postage on this reprint will be on 24 cents, under 100 miles, and 4 cents over 100 miles.

GEO. ROBERTS.

Proprietor of the Boston Notion.

This cheap reprint of Bentley's Miscellany, we shall probably follow with regular reprints of Blackwood & other prominent English Magazines, in a uniform style with our reprint of Bentley.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

AMERICAN EDITION

OF THE

DULIN UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE.

The increased attention paid to the cultivation of British Periodical Literature, may be regarded as one among the prominent characteristics, of the present age. An entirely new class of writers, including some of the finest intellects the country has produced, have, in some instances, done honor to its pages, and thus a corresponding elevation has been given to the stand of the popular taste.

Among the distinguish periodicals of the day, none may be said to take higher range in the fields of elegant literature than the "Dublin University Magazine."

Characterised, as its pages have ever been by a delightful raciness, of rich Irish humor, and deep and powerful pathos, and claiming, as its contributors, some of the most distinguished writers of Great Britain this highly talented work has ever maintained a proud position its contemporaries while from the dawn of its commencement it has been constantly increasing in the popular estimation down to the present time. In confirmation of our assertion, it is only necessary to refer to those thrilling incidents, of flood and field, under the titles of "Charles O'Malley," and "Harry Lorrequer," both of which originally graced the pages of this periodical—the most popular with the exception of Boz's works, perhaps of all that have ever issued from the periodical press. Sparkling with humor, and teeming, as these admirable sketches do, with incidents of such intense and glowing interest in their perusal we positively become ourselves participants in the scenes narrated. It would be needless, however, for us to speak of the merits of an author with whom the public universally are so favorably acquainted, were it not for the announcement of a new work from the pen of the same delightful writer, Dr. Laven, which is to appear in this Magazine, and which will be commenced immediately after the completion of the series, of "Charles O'Malley," now in course of publication.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, may be franked by all postmasters Agents; carriers, newsmen, will be supplied on usual terms. — The cash system will be rigidly adhered to, without any deviation whatever.

Such Editors as copy the above will oblige me by forwarding a marked paper and resuming the exchange; which was interrupted much to my regret, by circumstances over which I had no control.

GEORGE P. MORRIS.

THE LADIES' WORLD OF FASHION.

The first number of a Monthly magazine with the above title, embellished with the earliest Fashions, from Paris and London elegant Steel and Mezzotint Engraving, Lace Work, Embroidery, Music, etc., was issued for January 1842.

The work devoted especially to the ladies, and will be issued in a style never before attempted in this country. It will contain articles from the peculiar and pleasing, writers of the day, on every variety of subject, but the work will be in the main devoted to the cultivation of the home virtues. Hence most of the stories will be of practical, domestic character in in the pens of our best female writers while the earliest fashions in all their varieties shall be correctly given—so as to make the work welcome at every fireside, in the halls of the fashionable and the gay,—the home of this vicious matron whose own needle supplies her ramification, as well as in the sewing room of the mantua-maker and milliner.

The main design of the work. The prominent design of the magazine will be to furnish in an elegant and attractive manner in an elegant and attractive style, the earliest most correct, and full report in advance of all the other Magazines, and prior to the issuing of them here, of the Monthly Fashions, direct from Paris and London. The advantage of this, every lady, who makes taste in dress the best matter of life, will at once be apparent, & to the professional dressmaker & milliner of the United States, the enterprise will be of incalculable advantage. It proposed to issue every month a number and variety of costume, which will put to the blush every thing in the way of monthly reports of the Fashions, heretofore attempted.

The American Edition will be a facsimile of the original.

TERMS.—$4 per annum, payable in advance. Subscriptions received by the Publisher, by Mr. JOHN NISBET, Agent for the Canadians, and by the respective local agents throughout the United States.

— J. M. MASON,
Basement Rooms, corner of Pine and Broadway, New York.

NEW YORK MIRROR.

EVERY number embellished with an Original and Exquisite design on Steel—Edited by GEORGE P. MORRIS, illustrated by J. G. CHAPMAN, who engaged exclusively for the work.

TERMS—Three Dollars per annum—single numbers 6 1/4 cents.

In the course of a few weeks the undersigned will commence, on his own account the publication of a new series of the New York Mirror, in the octavo form on an entirely novel and original plan with a Steel Engraving in every number and at the reduced price of Three Dollars per annum or six and a quarter cents per copy.

The New York Mirror will appear with many striking and attractive features distinguishing it from any other periodical it will be published with new type on fine paper, and each number will contain a beautiful original Engraving on Steel, designed and etched by Chapman, illustrating the letter-press which it accompanies and which it will invest with peculiar interest. Besides the contributions of all our extensive corps, of correspondents which embraces most of the talent of this country; we have made arrangements for fresh and early translations from some of the best writers of France, and for proof sheets from several of the popular authors in England. With such materials, and with such able fellow laborers in the literary vineyard; we hope to present to the Amateurs—a weekly journal of great value and unusual excellence. The parade of mere names will be sedulously avoided.

The Mirror will be remarkable we hope rather for good articles without names, than for poor articles with distinguished names. It will embrace in its scope every department of elegant literature, composing tales of romance, sketches of society, manners & sentiments, and every day life, popular essays, domestic and foreign correspondence, literary intelligence, wit and humor, fashion and gossip, poetry, the fine arts, and literary, musical and dramatic criticism. Its reviews of new works will be careful discriminating and impartial. It will aim to foster a literature suited to the taste and desires of the age, and country. Its tendency will be cheerful and enlivening as well as improving. It will seek to gratify every refined taste, but never to offend the most fastidious—and it will ever feel its duty to, "turn the sunny side of things to human eyes."

The work will be published every Saturday, in numbers of sixteen large octavo super royal pages, with double columns and enclosed in a neat ornamental cover. It will form at the end of the year, two superb volumes, each of four hundred and sixteen pages, filled with the gems of literature and the fine arts.

The very low price at which it will be issued renders it the cheapest periodical in this or any other country considering the cost and beauty of its FIFTY-TWO ENGRAVINGS, and the intrinsic value of its literary contents. Those desirous of receiving the paper from the commencement, will have it punctually sent to the address upon their forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4 Ann street, three dollars free of expense.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, may be franked by all postmasters Agents; carriers, newsmen, will be supplied on usual terms. — The cash system will be rigidly adhered to, without any deviation whatever.

Such Editors as copy the above will oblige me by forwarding a marked paper and resuming the exchange; which was interrupted much to my regret, by circumstances over which I had no control.

GEORGE P. MORRIS.

THE LADIES' WREATH. Is the title of a new work, published monthly in Philadelphia at the extremely low price of ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF RATE, & Magazine, which its design is to reward literary merit and mechanical magazines. Each number will contain at least forty-eight (8vo) pages of the most talented male and female authors, & in the Wreath, the above named work, Specimen numbers furnished, will be sent post paid. Address

BREW AND SCAMMEL Publishers, 67, South Third St., Philadelphia.

Editors giving the above for name and calling, and sending the numbers marked with 10c, will receive the work for free.

Editors giving the above for name and calling, attention especially, & to receive the work for free.

JOHN F. BASKIN, TRUSTEE.

Yesterdays, Two copies of the Wreath, the above named work, Specimen numbers furnished, will be sent post paid. Address

BREW AND SCAMMEL Publishers, 67, South Third St., Philadelphia.

Editors giving the above for name and calling, & to receive the work for free.

JOHN F. BASKIN, TRUSTEE.

WILL sell at the Court House in Lexington, on the 24th day of July next, the following described real estate, of Leroy Sims, who has been declared Bankrupt, to wit: Lot No 27, in the south east quarter and west half west quarter section 6, township 3 east; surrendered by James W. Sims, Tit. good.

F. S. HUNT, Assignee. In Bankrupt.

ALSO, At the same time and place, the south east quarter and west half west quarter section 6, township 3 east; surrendered by James W. Sims, as part of his effects in Bankrupt.

F. S. HUNT, Assignee. In Bankrupt.

NOTICE. WILL on the first Monday in next, present my account in the Probate Court of Holmes county, Mississippi, for final settlement and discharge as Administrator on the estate of Land, deceased.

W. H. JOHNSON, April 4, 1843.